Prepare My Way!

Prophetic word shared with our Mother Foundress
at a Conference in 1977
(which the Holy Spirit is anointing for this time)

My children,

I have been ministering to each of you today, but this is only the beginning. I intend to do great things among you – to empower you with the gifts and graces that will truly make you an instrument of my Love. For the clouds of darkness are gathering, the time of distress is near. I want you to be ready – use this time well – spend it in prayer and even fasting. For I wish to gather around Me a valiant army – a mighty army of Intercessors who will let Me pray and suffer through them. Will there be some of you generous enough to answer this call of Intercessor – one who will pray and live according to My Father's will? For the time is short, very short to prepare for My coming. Be watchful, for the enemy, like a roaring lion is trying to devour My little ones. Be strong in faith, hope and love and union. That I am truly Lord of your life, surrender all your troubles, sins and needs to Me alone. Praise Me always. For I, the Lord, am the Mighty One, the Lord of Hosts, Who is coming. Prepare My Way!
